March Facts

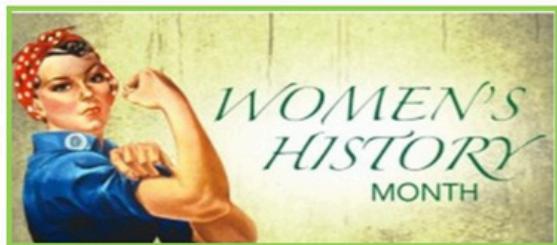

By Dr. Ida Pennella, PhD

Who was St. Patrick?

- St. Patrick, the patron saint of Ireland, is one of Christianity's most widely known figures. But for all his celebrity, his life remains somewhat of a mystery.
- It is known that St. Patrick was born in Britain to wealthy parents near the end of the fourth century. He is believed to have died on March 17, around 460 A.D.
- At the age of sixteen, Patrick was taken prisoner by a group of Irish raiders who were attacking his family's estate. They transported him to Ireland where he spent six years in captivity.

Roman Catholics celebrated Ash Wednesday, on March 5, 2025. Ashes are made from burnt palms from last year's Palm Sunday mass, and blessed by the priest.

Christians world-wide practice some type of Lenten discipline. It's easy to give up something during Lent like alcohol, cigarettes, and desserts. This year do something positive.

"Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have, for such sacrifices are pleasing to God."
(Hebrews 13:16)

I appeal to you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect (Romans 12:1-2)

"This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. Greater love has no one than this that someone lay down his life for his friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you." (John 15:12-14)

Some ideas to consider:

The Corporal Works of Mercy provides for the needs of the body: 1) feed the hungry, 2) give drink to the thirsty, 3) clothe the naked, 4) shelter the homeless, 5) visit the sick, 6) visit the imprisoned, and 7) bury the dead.

The Spiritual Works of Mercy provides for the needs of the spirit: 1) instruct the ignorant, 2) council the doubtful, 3) admonish the sinner, 4) bear wrongs patiently, 5) forgive offenses willingly, 6) comfort the sorrowful, and 7) pray for the living and the dead.

Prayer is a Lenten practice: 1) dedicate a specific time for prayers, 2) attend or pray the Stations of the Cross, 3) pray the Holy Rosary, 4) read, meditate, and contemplate on the Scriptures, and 5) celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

Pilgrimage is another Lenten practice that isn't as hard as you think. Although the traditional Pilgrimages are visiting the Holy Land, Lourdes, and Fatima, but did you know that visiting any spiritually significant site, like praying in front of the tabernacle, visiting a church other than your parish, and placing flowers on a gravesite is also considered a pilgrimage?

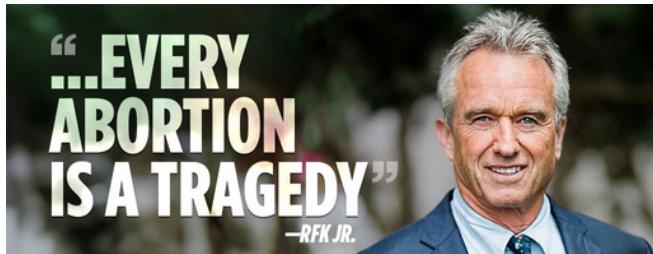

Sharing your talents and creativity, donating blood, food, and clothing, or volunteering at a food bank is considered a Lenten penance.

What will you do during the next few weeks of Lent?

RFK Jr. has openly acknowledged that abortion is a moral crisis that America can no longer ignore. During his Senate hearing, RFK Jr. spoke directly to the heart of the pro-life cause: "Every abortion is a tragedy... We cannot be a moral nation with 1.2 million abortions a year."

WASHINGTON, D.C. (LifeSiteNews)

In a move that some workers in the so-called "reproductive health" industry say is a "clear attempt" to change how conversations around pregnancy are approached, the Centers for Disease Control (CDC) website no longer returns search results for the word "abortion" and instead suggests that users try searching the word "adoption." One pro-life advocate called the change in the CDC's a "HUGE WIN."

Yes, There Is a Clear Path To Victory for the Pro-Life Movement This Year By: Ashley Bateman

This year, pro-life organizations across the country are poised to fight abortion by defunding Planned Parenthood, restoring necessary safeguards on the abortion pill, challenging free-speech buffer zones, and more.

Pro-life leaders are confident several major cases will win back legal protections for the unborn and cut funding to abortion providers this year.

The largest grassroots pro-life organization in the world, 40 Days for Life, stood up an enhanced legal arm, the Institute of Law and Justice (ILJ), in Aug. 2023 to address increasing aggression against pro-lifers. To date, the ILJ has lost no cases and is taking one to the Supreme Court.

Major cases include 40 Days for Life v. County of Westchester, a suit against Westchester County, New York, to repeal its 100-foot buffer zone against pro-life advocates' freedom of speech. The county repealed its unlawful ordinance in the face of 40 Days for Life's lawsuit, knowing that the Supreme Court would end buffer zones nationwide; but 40 Days for Life is advancing the case against the remaining unlawful ordinances attacking free speech.

The Westchester case is one of several challenging buffer zones across the states and going before the Supreme Court; Turco v. City of Englewood, New Jersey and Coalition Life v. City of Carbondale, Illinois seek to overturn limits on freedom of speech around abortion centers.

The organization is also representing pro-life advocate Mark Houck and his family in a suit against the Department of Justice and Pennsylvania state and local law enforcement for forcibly raiding Houck's home and arresting him on false charges in September 2022. In a third case, ILJ has filed two complaints against Planned Parenthood for electioneering, in direct violation of federal laws governing unlawful political activities by tax exempt entities.

"Two Missouri Planned Parenthoods provided and advertised direct support to the Democratic National Convention in Chicago; and the Sarasota Planned Parenthood allowed its facilities to be used for multi-day electioneering efforts for the Harris campaign, setting up phone banks and placing Harris/Walz signs on the building," according to Matt Britton, ILJ board member ex-officio and general counsel.

Other Cases before the Supreme Court

The Supreme Court is also currently considering whether Medicaid dollars can fund Planned Parenthood in Medina v. Planned Parenthood South Atlantic, a South Carolina case that could redirect these funds towards real health care for women.

Abortion tourism, a problem arising from state variability in legal abortion since Dobbs overturned Roe, will also be addressed in the courts this year in the cases Matsumoto v. Labrador and Welty v. Dunaway. This could impact the trafficking of pregnant minors across state lines with parental permission or involvement.
